THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.8159 of 2005

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed being aggrieved by a show cause notice cum suspension order passed by the Revenue Divisional Officer dated 10.9.2004, wherein the petitioner's dealership against the fair price shop of A.Nagireddypalli village was suspended pending enquiry.

At the time of admission of the writ petition, no interim order was passed. Against a show cause notice cum suspension order, in fact, no writ petition can be entertained under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, unless some extra ordinary grounds such as jurisdiction and apparent legal infirmities are brought to the notice of the court. This is not one such case. Admittedly, the suspension of the fair price dealership of the petitioner is during pendency of a detailed enquiry into the matter. Specific allegations are made against the petitioner in the show cause notice cum suspension order. Hence, no interference can be made by this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Writ petition is devoid of merits and is liable to be dismissed. However, the Revenue Divisional Officer is directed to complete the enquiry contemplated, if not already completed, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
